

We do not want the "no call list" to be taken over by yet another big business.

My home is private and I should have the right to prevent unsolicited telephone calls as much as possible.

Mary Weil